SPONSORSHIP AND CAMPAIGN OPTIONS

Forex Training Group offers two primary options for Advertising. This includes banner ad placements on the blog and Email Marketing in the form of Dedicated Email sends to our subscribers.

Banner Ads – We offer nine different placement options for Banners. And there are three different pricing packages based on duration. The longer the duration, the cheaper the ad cost. Pricing is based on a Fixed Fee Model. Refer to the next page for details on placements and pricing.

Email Marketing – We offer Dedicated Email sends to our subscriber list, which is currently over 16,000. Our email list is very responsive and we achieve close to a 20% open rate on average. Offers that work well include trading education offers, lead generation offers, and forex broker offers.
