Final Notice: Pay Tax Debt or Face Additional Interest, Penalties, and Fees

Division of Taxation sent you previous bills for income taxes owed. As of the date on this notice, all or part of this debt is unpaid. If you do not pay in full, your debt will be referred to a collection agency and an additional cost and recovery fee will be added. If you do not pay in full within 30 days of the date on this notice, we will add additional interest to the amount due listed below. If you do not pay within 60 days, you may not receive federal and/or State refunds until the debt is paid in full. These refunds will be sent to us and applied to your tax debt. In addition, benefits or other payments from the federal government, other states, and some New Jersey agencies due to you may be taken by us to resolve this debt. There are two ways to pay:
By accessing www.njtaxation.org and selecting Make a Payment, or by check or money order payable to State of New Jersey.
Payment Plan: To apply, visit www.njtaxation.org and choose the Individuals tab option Payment Plan Information. Call (609)943-5000 if you have questions. Or, contact your assigned caseworker, should one be assigned to you.

upload a response to this notice at www.njportal.com/DOR/online/notice, or mail it to the address above. Provide an explanation of why you owe this debt. Include a copy of this notice, supporting documents, and your phone number with your correspondence.
If you have already filed for bankruptcy, contact your bankruptcy caseworker or call (609)292-6616. The Bankruptcy Unit cannot assist with additional questions?
(943-5000. Do not dispute the debt with the Customer Service Center. They cannot resolve disputes over the telephone.
